

Buying, Selling & Working Out Distressed Assets in a Post-Pandemic Environment

Webinar Details:

WHEN: Wednesday, October 14, 2020 11am-12:30pm EST

WHERE: Live Video Webinar + On-Demand Recording

WHAT: Property owners are experiencing unprecedented uncertainty and volatility and are struggling to keep afloat. Asset values have declined, workout discussions are in process with defaults and foreclosures imminent. Our panelists represent the capital, legal and advisory services that owners and their representatives will want to know more about. Come hear what our experts say about:

- Commencing workout discussions
- Reviewing financial and legal obligations
- Developing an exit strategy
- Maximizing business assets in a declining economy
- Providing strategic advice and recommendations to asset owners
- Finding opportunities in the current marketplace

Hosted by Professor Ronald M. Shapiro, Assistant Professor of Professional Practice at Rutgers Business School, this webinar will assist all real estate owners, lenders, mortgage brokers, attorneys, appraisers, and the many third-party consultants and contractors who work with these professionals navigate and negotiate these distressed transactions. Network and exchange your contact information with our speakers and other participants during our breakout sessions. Questions from the audience will be answered throughout the program.

REGISTER NOW

Webinar Sponsors:

Ronald M. Shapiro

Assistant Professor of Professional Practice,
Rutgers Business School

Joshua Olshin

Managing Partner, AuctionAdvisors

James Shelvin

President, CWCapital

Steven M. Schultz

Executive Managing Director, Newmark
Knight Frank

Matthew J. Schiller

Partner, Murphy Schiller & Wilkes LLP

William F. Looney

President, U.S. Loan Sale Group at DebtX